

Nature Scavenger Hunt

Burnt Island

Perhaps you've walked around Burnt Island recently or enjoyed a picnic on one of its many beautiful beaches. There is a lot more than meets the eye; with some effort and help from Amila Campbell and Andrew May, leaders of the Fox Islands Outing Club, hunters will make some new discoveries about what and who lives on Burnt (and why).

When:

Sunday, July 16, 9-11 am

Where:

Meet at the tidal bar just off Cooper's Lane. Parking down Cooper's Lane, courtesy of the Cobb family, is limited, so please carpool.

What to bring:

This event, fun for families and young detectives, is tide dependent, so please make sure you are on time. Wear sturdy sneakers and bring water.

Questions?:

Call Amila Campbell at 867-2385

As always, please leave your pet(s) at home with a good book and a fresh bowl of water.
